Mixed Response to 48-Hour-Week is Heard in Capital

Is Another Subject of Study Along With Pay-as-You-Go Taxes

Washington, Feb. 9.—(AP)—A mixed response to the new 48-hour week policy poured in from the nation today, giving the Capital another subject for study along with the pay-as-you-go income tax drive and talk about the post-war world.

Generally in the highly industrialized manufacturing areas where so many of the tools of war are produced there was endorsement of the longer work week by both labor and management.

The chief complaint aired so far, aside from a lack of some details about the plan which the War Manpower Commission said it hoped to clear up shortly, was that time-and-a-half pay for many persons now working 40 hours would hurt employers whose contracts were figured without overtime and whose prices are government-controlled.

Continuing its tax study, the house ways and means committee heard representatives of the American Institute of Accountants and the National Retail Dry Goods Association propose skipping a tax year to put payments of federal income tax on a current basis.

Vice President Wallace took note of the tag "Globaloney" which Rep. Clare Boothe Luce (R-Conn.) pinned yesterday on some of his expressed ideas about a post-war world, including his advocacy of "freedom of the air".

He issued a statement saying he is "sure that the Republican party is not against either freedom of the seas or freedom of the air after the war is over."

To Study Pacific Bases
Meanwhile, an immediate congressional investigation into methods for permanent American acquisition of "stepping stone" aerial and naval bases across the Pacific was proposed by Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the house naval committee.

He announced he would appoint a naval sub-committee to undertake a detailed study of developing and acquiring the bases, an undertaking which he conceded probably would involve the territorial possessions of France, Holland and Japan.

The need for the network of bases "to keep Japan disarmed on the sea" and "to prevent future aggression in that part of the world" was laid before the house foreign affairs committee yesterday by Secretary of Navy Knox in urging continuance of the lend-lease act.

Knox expressed belief the negotiations should be opened at once. A final settlement of the complex issues involved in permanent acquisition of the bases, among them those of postwar foreign policy, undoubtedly would have to await negotiations by the state department.

The Vinson move, however, took on substantial import as an indication of the demands which may arise in congress for action, in advance of victory, on post war settlements.

Several members of the foreign affairs committee already have raised in open session the advisability of using the "bargaining" powers of lend-lease to secure agreements permitting American commercial planes to use, after the war, foreign airports devel-

Republicans Claim First Big Victory at State's Capital

Seven Democrats Bolt to Aid Passage of Deficiency Appropriations

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—The Green administration claimed its first major victory of the legislative session today when the senate's Republican majority, aided by seven downstate Democrats who bolted their party leadership, broke an inter-party deadlock and passed deficiency appropriations for state penal and welfare institutions.

One appropriation, $1,059,502 for state prisons, was approved 36 to 0 today after the senate late yesterday had passed a $5,650,041 bill for welfare institutions by 34 to 0, the bare two-thirds majority required. Both measures now go to the house.

In rapid fire order, the senate quickly passed and sent to the house other minor deficiency bills appropriating $40,836 to the state treasurer's office, $24,000 to the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and $4,222 to the department of finance.

In rapid fire order, the senate administration bills, the downstate Democrats disregarded, the stand taken by Minority Leader Richard J. Daley of Chicago, who questioned the appropriation amounts and demanded further hearings. On the prisons bill roll call one Chicago Democrat, William J. Connors, also voted for passage. Daley and other Cook county Democrats refused to vote.

Face Fight in House
The end of the deficiency appropriations fight in the senate came after Governor Green charged the Democratic opposition was prompted by futile efforts to settle election contests.

Indications were strong that the Democrats might make a further fight on the appropriations when they reach the house floor next week. Rep. William Vicars of Pontiac, the minority leader, served notice that he would demand a hearing on the bills before the whole house when it reconvenes Tuesday, Feb. 16, with various Republican state officials to be summoned for questioning.

In the evening session of the senate yesterday, during which state Welfare Director Rodney H. Brandon was questioned by Daley, the following downstate Democrats voted in favor of the bill: Senators John W. Fribbley, Pana; J. Will Howell, West Frankfort; Nicholas L. Hubbard, Mt. Pulaski; Clyde Lee, Mt. Vernon; Martin B. Lohmann, Pekin; Thomas E. Madden, Peoria; and John J. Parish, Centralia.

Their seven votes, added to the 27 by Republicans present, enabled the measure to gain the necessary two-thirds and to pass, 34-0.

Chicago Members Silent
Daley and 13 other Cook county Democrats remained silent on the roll call. Previously, Daley had expressed confidence the Democratic lines would hold fast in opposition to the bills in their present form.

The split between Chicago and downstate Democrats followed Governor Green's charge that the minority opposition to the appropriations for welfare and penal institutions was dictated by the Kelly-Nash "machine" leadership. Senator Lohmann remarked as he joined downstate Democrats voting for the welfare institutions appropriation: "No machine ever ran Marty Lohmann; I vote aye."

Brandon admitted under Daley's questioning that the budget for the last biennium was based on 21 months instead of 24, and the two argued as to who was responsible. Brandon accusing the legislature and Daley asserting it was done by Governor Green and his budgetary commission.

Talk of "Machines"
The welfare director, said that the only way to reduce the department's expenses would be to reduce the population of state institutions, and added there are 500 less now than a previous $40,000 being cared for.

"We could put inmates on a diet of beans and molasses," Brandon said, adding that he doubted if Democrats wanted such drastic curtailment.

Daley and Republican members clashed over the charges last week by Green that the minority sought to block passage of the appropriations in order "to make a shameful political deal" on election contests involving three Democrats.

There also was a brisk exchange of remarks about party "machines," Senator Fribbley declaring "the Cook county machine is no worse than the McCormick-Brooks machine," and Senator Peter P. Kielinski (D-Chicago) asserting "the Kelly-Nash machine is just as good as the Green-

House Democrats Strike to Tighten Lines After Defeat

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—On the losing end of the first legislative roll-call of the 78th congress, leaders of the reduced Democratic majority in the house set about today to tighten their lines and strengthen their organization.

Their activity followed a 205 to 200 setback handed them yesterday by an almost solid Republican minority aided by a few Democrats on a major amendment to the $1,198,840,960 treasury-post-office appropriation bill.

"Perhaps," commented one Democratic leader "yesterday's demonstration was just what we needed. It proved to our side that you cannot vote votes that are not present when the roll is called."

The reference was to the official house line-up showing 222 Democrats, 209 Republicans and four minor party members, a technical majority for the Democrats.

Would Ban Free Mail
But only 202 Democrats were on hand yesterday when Republicans, riding high from an earlier victory on the silver issue, wrote into the appropriation bill a ban against use of any postoffice funds to handle penalty mail, the mail handled free for government agencies.

Six of the Democrats, however, voted with 197 Republicans and two minor party members to give supporters of the amendment 205 votes.

The best the Democrats could do was to muster 196 of their own members, two Republicans and two minor party members for a total of 200.

Twenty Democrats and 10 Republicans were absent or not voting.

As finally passed after five days of wrangling, the treasury-postoffice bill contained the Republican-backed ban against the use of free mail by government agencies, a prohibition against the use of any of the funds for the purchase of silver under previous silver purchase acts, and a net overall reduction of $3,166,360 from the total appropriations recommended by the appropriations committee last week.

"Inflammatory" Radio Commentators Warned

New York, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Mark Woods, president of the Blue Network, says several commentators have violated the network's policy by departing from prepared texts to discuss controversial subjects in an "inflammatory manner" and that network editors have been reminded broadcasts must conform to regulations.

Although Woods' statement, issued yesterday, did not identify the commentators to whom he referred, newspapers here published reports that the action was aimed at Walter Winchell and Drew Pearson, columnists and commentators.

Suffers Broken Hip in Rush for Butter

Pawtucket, R. I., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Seventy-year-old Miss Bridget McGovern of Central Falls suffered a fracture of the right hip when she was felled by a surging crowd as the door of a butter store opened today.

Miss McGovern, the first in line, went down crying, "I want my butter. I want my butter," witnesses said. She even tendered her money before she was taken to Memorial hospital.

The store manager, Charles Halpin, set aside a pound for her before the day's quota was exhausted.

Victorious British Army Starts Drive Into Tunisia Today

Reds Menace Kharkov From Three Sides in Ukraine Fighting

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Britain's victorious 8th Army was reported officially to have started a new advance into Tunisia today, breaking a protracted lull and at the same time the German-controlled Vichy radio asserted that axis Tunisian forces had launched an attack against the British.

The Vichy broadcast said the axis assault was made to forestall a British offensive.

First word of the British advance came from Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, British commander-in-chief in the Middle East, who told newsmen:

"The enemy's forces have been completely eliminated from Egypt, Cirenaica, Libya and Tripolitania—and the Eighth Army is advancing."

Vichy's report of an axis counterattack indicated that Col. Gen. Jurgen von Arnim's Tunisian forces may have reinforced Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's battered legions and turned on the British 8th Army somewhere in the vicinity of the Mareth Line, 60 miles inside Tunisia.

Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters reported that a new combination of U. S. Spitfires and American-flown P-40s raked axis forces on the southern Tunisian front with cannon and machine-gun fire, while U. S. Flying Fortresses blasted the German air base near Kairouan.

Kharkov Defenses Crumble
An Italian communique said the raiders inflicted many casualties at Kairouan and asserted 16 allied planes were shot down by German fighters.

Other allied fliers pounded the important port of Palermo, in Sicily, and attacked the Calabrian coast on the southern tip of Italy.

On the Soviet front, German defenses on the outer approaches to Kharkov were reported crumbling as Russian shock troops stormed toward the great Ukraine steel city from three sides after smashing through major barriers at Belgorod and Shebekino, respectively 50 and 40 miles to the north-east.

Other Red army columns were driving against the Soviet "Pittsburgh" from Balakieva, 40 miles southeast, and from Urazova, 75 miles east.

Further Slash in Newsprint Coming

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Another 10 per cent cut in the print paper allocation for newspapers is in prospect for April 1.

To set at rest widely-circulated reports of much deeper curtailment, the War Production Board's two top officials dealing with publishing problems issued a joint statement yesterday reporting that a reduction of not more than 10 per cent appeared to be sufficient to meet the pulpwood shortage situation.

Such a curtailment would not work "undue hardship" on any publication or cripple the essential wartime services performed by newspapers, said the statement signed by W. G. Chandler, chief of the printing and publishing division, and Donald J. Sterling, consultant on the Newspaper and Publishing Industries.

However, the talk of more drastic curtailment continued. Rep. Shafer (R-Mich.) declared on the floor of the house that one division of WPB was insisting on what he termed a "ruinous reduction" of 40 per cent, and that this division would make its demands known today.

WPB's information service said it could not find any division holding out for a 40 per cent cut.

WPB officials said the April 1 cut probably would reduce consumption of each newspaper to 90 per cent of the tonnage required to produce its 1941 net paid circulation.

Adolph Hitler Mittel's Papa Will Appeal to Public for New Cognomen

New York, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler Mittel's papa, Joseph, admits his 18-day-old son is behind the eight ball with a name like that and says that since the public has raised such shocked objection to the name it's up to the people of the nation to pick another.

"I certainly don't want to hurt the little guy's future," he said last night as he held little A. H. in his arms in their small flat. "Judging from the riding the papers and the public are giving us, the only thing to do is to find him another name."

Mine Disaster in Wisconsin Tuesday Is Fatal to Eight

Shullsburg, Wis., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Eight miners were killed late yesterday and two others were seriously injured in the worst Wisconsin mine disaster on record.

The dead included two miners who were trapped at the 60-foot level of the Mulcahy mine while they were repairing shoring, and six would-be rescuers from nearby diggings who plunged into the collapsed tunnel and were caught in a second collapse.

A coroner's jury, impelled by Coroner Gordon Rosellip at the shaft, heard testimony of six witnesses and decided the tragedy was an "unavoidable accident."

Sheriff Homer L. Curry said a full shift was at work in the lead-zinc mine when ceiling beams gave way, trapping the first two victims, the only miners on the first level. From the position of the bodies, he said, the rescuers had nearly reached their objective when another section of the tunnel caved in, killing six and injuring two.

Rescuers Trapped
When the first collapse came, only the first two victims, William Rooney of Shullsburg and John Stevenson of Benton were on the first level.

Soon after the second collapse had trapped the would-be rescuers, men began to arrive from other workings and started the task of digging out the upper level.

Shullsburg, in the heart of the great lead and zinc mining district that extends south to Galena, Ill., has been booming since the war began.

The other dead were identified as Maynard Howell, Platteville; Russell Sarey, Shullsburg; Walter Mauthe, Elk Grove; Nelson Jones, Mineral Point; Joseph Griffin, Benton, and Romo Lusiana, Darlington.

Four others charged with the same offense pleaded innocent.

Martin Griffith, 19, Chicago; James Romaine, 23, Chicago; and Albert Blair, 56, Taylorville, were sentenced to terms of from one to 10 years. Sentencing of George Gillian, 19, Amboy; Russell Bridle, Adams county; and William Kennan, 23, Dixon, was postponed to permit a study of their pleas for probation.

Biggest Jap Air Base in Rangoon Area Left Ablaze by U. S. Planes

New Delhi, Feb. 10.—(AP)—United States bombers attacked Mingaladon yesterday, leaving the biggest Japanese air base in the Rangoon area ablaze and pitted with bomb craters, a communique of the Tenth Air Force announced today.

On the same day Bienheims and Wellingtons of the RAF started fires on the river jetty and railroad yards of Sazang, near Mandalay, and caused heavy damage to the enemy's Magyichang supply base near Akyab, in western Burma.

None of the raiders—American or British—was lost.

Memorial

Waterloo, Ia., Feb. 10.—(AP)—As a tribute to the five Waterloo brothers reported lost with the U. S. S. Jupiter during a Pacific naval battle last November, a "Fighting Sullivan Memorial" campaign was launched today.

Sponsoring the drive, nationwide in scope, the Waterloo Daily Courier announced that the memorial—form and cost of which will depend upon the extent of public contributions—would be an enduring monument to the five sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Sullivan, listed by the Navy department as missing in action for three months.

Adolph Hitler Mittel's Papa Will Appeal to Public for New Cognomen

He explained that "the whole thing started as a joke. Before the baby was born, I bet my wife that she would have triplets and that if she didn't I'd name the baby Adolf Hitler. And I did. The name has nothing to do with politics and Adolf Hitler don't mean a thing to me."

Extension of Work Week of 48 Hours to Other Areas Likely

Post-War Prosperity Is Seen After Period of Spartan Living

(Editor's Note: The text of President Roosevelt's executive order establishing a 48-hour work week, in 32 areas in the United States will be found on page 7 of this issue of The Telegraph.)

Washington, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The prospect of an invasion of Europe this year, followed by unparalleled prosperity in the post-war period, was held out to Americans today but until victory is won they were told they must work longer hours and adopt a "Spartan standard of living."

To hasten the day of victory, President Roosevelt last night ordered a 48 hour minimum work week on the home war front, with time and a half overtime pay for all those covered by the fair labor standards act. This means a 30 per cent weekly wage increase for thousands now working a 40 hour week.

"Until further notice" the order was limited by War Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt to 32 labor shortage areas, extending from Maine to Washington state and from Florida to California.

Immediately the action was announced, Economic Stabilization Director James F. Byrnes went on the radio to give the people a broad outline of the struggle ahead on the civilian front, and particularly to warn against "a creeping inflation."

Applies to Everyone
Explaining the scope of the 48-hour week order issued by McNutt, his deputy commissioner, Fowler V. Harper, said it would apply to all employment in the specified areas, including retail stores, newspapers and even the employment of domestic servants.

Spokesmen said that while all employers should try to work up to the 48-hour week as soon as they could, the deadline for attaining it will not be reached until March 31 and employers who feel unable to operate on a 48-hour schedule may ask local WMC officials to make exceptions for them.

While the program was hailed by Senator Wagner (D-N.Y.), sponsor of much new deal labor legislation, as a "blue print for victory on the home front," congressional reaction generally was mixed.

Chairman Murray (D-Mont.) of the senate small business committee expressed the opinion that the order, which he said "probably is justified," would "have the effect of stilling the demand for any of the pending manpower legislation" over which congress now is laboring.

On the other hand, Senator Ball (R-Minn.) declared "I can't see where it will help a bit," and added:

"May Be Final Straw"
"I don't think this order will make much difference in manpower supplies. But it will hurt the employer who cannot afford to pay the extra amount in wages and it may very well be the straw that breaks the camel's back."

Rumblings of discontent were heard from the farm belt in the wake of Byrnes' announced intention to fight against any increase in food price ceilings, and there were indications on Capitol Hill that a showdown battle was in the making.

McNutt indicated the 48-hour week probably would be extended to other areas later, but it is not likely to reach cities having plentiful labor supplies, New York for example.

The midwestern area affected immediately are: Akron and Dayton, Ohio; Detroit; Manitowish, Wis.; Sterling, Ill.; and Wichita, Kan.

Covers All Employment

"In those areas," said McNutt, "it (the order) applies to all employment."

Moreover, Fowler V. Harper, McNutt's chief deputy, announced that it is not discretionary with employers but is mandatory. A reasonable period of several weeks will be allowed to put the program into effect. The manpower commission expects to find other jobs for workers forced out by the longer work week.

Highlights of the program as outlined by Byrnes, other than the 48 hour week, include:

1. No increase in hourly wage rates beyond that allowed by the War Labor Board's "Little Steel formula", except in special cases. This formula permits a 15 per cent increase over Jan. 1, 1941 levels to compensate for higher living costs.
2. Incentive payments to farmers to "enable us to increase production" without increasing prices, but no change in the farm parity formula.
3. No further increase in the basic and essential cost of subsistence living. "We must break up

The exultation natural to a great victory may excuse Admiral Halsey for the pun with which he greets today the news of the complete conquest of Guadalcanal. "Having sent General Patch to do a tailoring job on Guadalcanal, I am surprised and pleased at the speed with which he removed the enemy's pants to accomplish it."

Thus the hard hitting admiral enriches our heritage of picturesque military declarations, just as his South Pacific command—Army, Navy and Marines—has embellished forever the traditions of American arms.

Guadalcanal is a great victory although its scale may be small in comparison with the vast conflicts now raging in Russia or even those fought recently or impending in North Africa. Guadalcanal, about the size of Long Island, is merely one island of one of the many archipelagoes that dot the 3,500 miles of sea between it and Tokyo.

The Japanese may find comfort and the faint hearted among us may discover cause for dismay in the thought that if the six months required to take Guadalcanal is to set the pace for our advance on the Japanese homeland this generation will not see the victorious peace for which we are fighting.

But there is no good reason to measure our prospects by that standard. Our strength is just at its beginning in the Pacific. Admiral Halsey's spokesman says a new allied offensive is under preparation. General MacArthur, who won Guadalcanal's companion triumph in New Guinea three weeks ago, has declared that we can expect something better than the unimaginative island-hopping strategy to which some think we are doomed, and already he has moved from the Papuan campaign to the next phase with a vigor and speed which promises well.

In a sense Guadalcanal has a

No Organized Jap Forces Remain on Guadalcanal Today

Commander of American Troops on Island Reports to His Chief

An Advance Base in the South Pacific, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Major Gen. Alexander M. Patch, commander of American troops on Guadalcanal island in the Solomons, reported officially today that "Guadalcanal has been taken completely and there is no longer any vestige of any Japanese organized forces on that island."

General Patch's advise was contained in a message to Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., commander of U. S. naval forces in the South Pacific.

Capt. Myles Browning, Halsey's chief of staff, announced that the last enemy resistance was overcome at 4:25 p. m. (Guadalcanal time) yesterday.

The Japanese previously had evacuated an unknown number of high ranking officers by destroyers and submarines but there was no indication of a mass removal of troops.

"It was not a definite surrender," Browning said. "Our flanking force closed the pinchers on the enemy and a blot-out took

I Dead, I Missing in Hospital Fire

Evansville, Ind., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Officials of the Evansville state hospital today checked the institution's records in an effort to determine if all 1,200 patients had escaped after a fire destroyed the hospital at dawn yesterday. Loss was estimated by officials at $2,000,000.

While special trains took most of the patients to emergency quarters in Logansport, Madison and Indianapolis, Dr. John H. Hare, superintendent, said last night there was a possibility five or six of the inmates might have lost their lives in the fire.

He said, however, officials had not completed a check of hospital records. He also said some of the inmates might have gone to homes of relatives and had not notified authorities.

One employee, Mrs. Ida McClure, a linen worker, lost her life in the fire, while Mrs. Maude Maxwell, more than 70 years old and employed at the hospital since its establishment 50 years ago, was missing.

Greatly Improved

A great change has taken place in the Ives Drug store since the fire a week before Christmas. New shelves have been added, lovely wall-paper, and ceiling adorn the store, while several large fluorescent lights make it as light and bright as day. But perhaps the greatest added attraction is the new beautiful maple booths that are occupied most of the time. With the new arrangement of counters one can hardly believe that it is the same store. The public will greatly appreciate the town was badly in need of an ice cream parlor.

Today on the Home Front

By JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington — (AP) — In as many conversations as we could manage in one day, we found the average reaction to the shoe rationing order was: "It's O. K. with me".

The shoe problems of the individuals questioned varied widely, as might well be expected, but each one expected to "get along somehow", in spite of doing more walking than in peacetime.

Greatest concern was expressed by a couple of young women who said they wore out shoes in six or eight weeks, and by fathers of larger-than-average families, whose children will make heavy demands on the family's rations.

Some seemed reassured by a provision in the rationing order that local boards can issue additional certificates in the cases of "need".

The ration of three pairs a year comes very close to the department of commerce figures on average consumption for 1940.

Some of the trends indicated in the day's conversations:

1. "That's all the shoes I'll be able to afford, anyway".
2. Plans to purchase higher quality shoes, spending more to get longer wear out of each pair.
3. Father and mother of children who are hard on shoes will have to wear their own shoes longer. The youngsters may have to cut down on jitterbug dancing.
4. People will take better care of their shoes, get them repaired oftener and wear old ones in bad weather.
5. More women probably will wear slippers (not rationed) around the house.

MARCHING ORDERS

Marching orders for the home front...

You can read them in Economic Stabilizer James F. Byrnes' words as he fitted in the outlines of administration policy in the nation's economic jigsaw puzzle.

While the 48-hour minimum work week order doesn't affect everyone immediately, Byrnes' speech last night pictured a mode of life in which, generally speaking, the average American would:

1. Work longer and harder.
2. Get a bigger paycheck as a result; yet—
3. Pay prices held at about present levels; and still—
4. Do with less of goods and services.
5. Pay higher taxes and yield part of his paycheck to the treasury in some form of compulsory savings to be returned after the war.
6. In the case of millions of persons, shift to war work or the farm or the armed services.
7. In the case of workers considered essential, stay on the same job even though another position might pay better.

To labor: The new policy apparently was intended to dispose of the growing number of demands for wage increases... by providing bigger paychecks despite adherence to the "Little Steel" yardstick of a 15 per cent increase in basic rates over Jan. 1, 1941; and by the promise of holding living costs about level. Too, the indicated increases in paychecks would solve many an individual's income-tax problem. At the same time the new policy leaves in effect the basic 40-hour week for "straight pay" in the face of some demands for a 48-hour week without payment of overtime.

To the farmer: Byrnes sought to convince the farmer that his position is "the most favorable ever attained in our history" and that higher prices wouldn't help him. Also, Byrnes' speech apparently put the presidential seal of approval on the policy of "incentive" payments to farmers with the aim of increasing output of certain crops while keeping the cost to the consumer unchanged.

Touhy's Arraignment on Escaps Charge Is Continued to Tuesday

Joliet, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Arraignment of Roger Touhy and two fellow members of the Touhy gang, indicted in connection with the mass escape of themselves and four other felons from Stateville prison last Oct. 9, was continued until next Tuesday when they were brought into a heavily guarded Circuit courtroom Tuesday.

Judge James V. Bartley granted the continuance at the request of representatives of Joseph Harrington of Chicago, Touhy's counsel, who said he could not appear today. Bartley then appointed two Joliet attorneys to represent Mathew Nelson and William Stewart, the other gang members indicted.

The courtroom doors were locked during the brief session.

That Extra Something!

...You can spot it every time

EVERY woman knows it's the extra touches that make a house a home. Ice-cold Coca-Cola is something she likes to add . . . to brighten the most important part of a home, the people in it.

Coca-Cola is served with pride. Everybody will be pleased. Its quality carries on, never losing the freshness of appeal which first delighted you.

Call for Coca-Cola by its full name or by its friendly abbreviation, Coke.

It's the real thing.

War-time limits the supply of Coca-Cola. Those times when you cannot get it, remember: Coke, being first choice, sells out first. Ask for it each time.

In these days of wartime shortages, there may not be as much Coca-Cola as before. But still enough for many pauses that refresh. It's wise to buy ahead for the home refrigerator.

The best is always the better buy!

"All God's Chillun Got Shoes?"

James F. Byrnes, economic stabilization director, has recognized that America is on its feet and intends to stay on its feet. The order extending rationing to shoes, announced without advance notice, is designed to forestall the necessity of anyone, even a Wall Street lawyer, having to go barefoot. It aims to accomplish this purpose by allocating the supply of footwear in a fair manner to every family in these United States.

For the first time, a "freeze" and rationing edict has been announced without permitting the hoarders opportunity to lay in a supply of the rationed articles. Of course, in the case of children, it might be argued that hoarding of shoes is not feasible, because advance purchase of shoes for growing feet might result in misfits due to miscalculation of the rate of growth. However, adults whose feet have ceased to grow could easily have taken advantage of advance notice, and filled their closets with footwear to the extent of their purchasing power.

Besides having defeated the hoarders, the rationing plan and accompanying orders for limitations on styles have other points worthy of commendation. It is our understanding that there is some flexibility in the plan, permitting the head of a family to allocate the No. 17 stamps in his "sugar" ration book to the members of his family who need shoes. In other words—according to first announcements—if a boy is "hard on shoes" or outgrows them at a fast rate, he might be permitted to have four pairs of shoes in a year, using a coupon which normally would go to his mother, who might have need for only one or two pairs in the same period.

Moreover, the elimination of fancywork and decorations, reduction of colors, and limitations on height of heels will work no hardship while accomplishing savings in material and cost of manufacture.

One can hardly voice a complaint reasonably at having to give up certain items in order that our own American soldiers and sailors will have the best footwear possible. We are inclined to agree with Prentiss M. Brown, price administrator, that "the plan is simple and the ration is more than liberal."

Misquoted

Luigi Antonini, a New York labor leader, says he was misquoted as to assertions that the Office of War Information was trying to force acceptance of Communists on an Italian-American Victory Committee.

Previously, on two occasions (once in writing) Antonini said flatly that two OWI officials tried to obtain inclusion of Reds in the Victory Committee. Thereafter, conferring with the OWI men, Mr. Antonini became persuaded that they had done no such thing. Instead of conceding that he had been badly informed or that he had spoken without checking his facts, the labor leader tried to place the blame on the press by alleging misquotation.

This usually is the background of charges by men in public life: that they have been misquoted. Seldom is one naive enough to make the case against himself as clear as Mr. Antonini did.

Stop and Go

Rubber, gasoline and man-hours are being wasted because most communities have not reorganized their traffic light systems. With non-essential traffic much reduced and all motoring cut materially, no hardship would be worked and no major safety hazard would be created if lights were regulated for the express purpose of getting war workers to and from work with a minimum of traffic light delay.

Some 10 months ago the office of Defense Transportation suggested such action to all public authorities having regulatory powers over mass transportation vehicles. Now a conference of street traffic experts has been called.

It is to be hoped that out of this may come specific flowing with a minimum of stops, starts and delays. Then there will be no excuse for local authorities to delay action any longer.

Three to One in the Air

The War Department has thrown some cold, hard figures into the warm and occasionally academic debate as to the relative merits of American planes in comparison with those of British, German and Japanese make.

In 1942, according to official figures, our Air Forces downed 987 enemy planes while losing only 309. That's better than 3 to 1 in our favor, and the odds are conservative. For the 987 figure includes only those planes seen to crash, break up in the air, or be abandoned by their pilots. There are an additional 362 aircraft "probably destroyed"—that is, planes seen falling in flames, in spins or out of control.

This doesn't settle all the arguments about bomb loads, range and so on. But it does give one very substantial proof of the pudding.

Shop and Carry

Women proved very co-operative during the pre-Christmas season in keeping store deliveries to a minimum, the Office of Defense Transportation reports. The ODT urges that similar co-operation be continued, and offers a number of useful hints.

Prepare a shopping list in advance; buy only what you need; bring along a bag in which to carry small purchases; purchase lighter articles first so as not to have to carry heavier ones throughout the shopping trip. Try to concentrate articles that must be delivered in the same store on the same day, to minimize truck trips to your house. And for your own convenience as well as that of others, travel during off-peak hours, between 10 and 4.

Those suggestions seem reasonable.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc., reproduction in whole or part strictly prohibited.)

Washington—Some minor controversy is developing belatedly now about my conclusions, published several weeks ago, that the south is in a psychological political revolt against centralized government methods.

A left wing reporter, whose name is not familiar to me, has circulated nationally a story that he made a trip to the south and found my conclusions restricted to a "few newspaper editors," "some businessmen," and "proprietors of Florida tourist resorts." The south, he reported, is sleeping as soundly Democratic as always.

Now comes the Nashville Tennessean with an editorial ridiculing my notion that a majority in the south is extremely aroused over inefficiencies in handling rationing, the Negro and other problems, and stating I got the story from some industrial organization, whose name is not familiar to me. On the other side, the noted southern columnist, John Temple Graves, finds me "dead right," and he is joined by the Augusta Chronicle which says "keen perception," "remarkably observant because many of our own people are not yet fully conscious of the development" of this southern revolt.

There can be no doubt about the truth of the story, for now Washington is beginning to act accordingly.

The southern congressmen who are as close to the inner feelings of their constituents as any newspaper editor or reporter have lately taken leadership to defeat Roosevelt's appointment of Flynn, to repudiate the administration's promise to Marcantonio, and, in other ways, to act independently or antagonistic to the left wing of the administration.

For its part, the administration is soft-pedaling the Negro problem, has called off the fair employment committee hearings in which radical Negroes were to air more complaints; and Mrs. Roosevelt has avoided subjects sensitive in the south in recent weeks.

Wise new dealers know nothing is to be gained by kidding themselves.

A similar new political technique is being practiced by the administration in connection with rationing defects, which are at the real root of the southern political problem.

Not by one word has any government official admitted that mistakes were made or injustices done, but, at the same time, personnel of rationing boards is being changed, mistakes quietly corrected, injustices smoothed over by the issuance of additional coupons.

Just as in the case of the southern spokesman for the new deal, the government is publicly denying the existence of a situation which it is secretly moving to ameliorate. This is probably a judicious technique, even though it makes reporting a difficult and confusing business.

My southern conclusions were reached not from talking to editors or industrialists, but from shopkeepers, people in stores, service occupations, hotels, on the street—those who recognized me from pictures in the paper or otherwise, and came up to tell me their troubles. They were the common people covering all walks of life.

My information on the rationing situation comes not only from them, but from the thousands of readers in all sections who wrote me their individual experiences.

The trouble with this administration lately has been that Roosevelt has no one around like Jim Farley who maintains touch with the common people. He is much too busy to be expected to do it himself, and his advisers are largely theorists who go no deeper into the public mind than clipping the editorial pages of the newspapers.

These are good sources in ordinary times, but in this war time, every individual has personal experience with centralized government, enabling him to form his own personal opinions.

There has been no politician around this government with either Farley's faculty or friendships throughout the country, to keep the government in step with anyone except the local political bosses and office holders who would ignore a revolt if confronted with one.

Roosevelt's outside publicists likewise seem to be struggling in difficulties, especially with their campaign to stamp out all rationing criticism by calling it unpatriotic, whether or not it is constructive and forces improvements.

I listened to the most widely publicized of the campaigning radio commentators in his last broadcast. He built up a pathetic picture of the food situation of the Army in Guadalcanal, saying they were getting along on little or nothing without complaint, and mentioned that seamen in lifeboats are starving.

His theory was that similar suffering at home should be welcomed and encouraged as a patriotic duty, without question as to whether it is necessary or justly administered.

This kind of foolish thinking presumes that inasmuch as murder is also common in other parts of the world right now, we should have murder at home as a patriotic duty, and even promote a little of it so we too would know how others feel when they are murdered.

But he immediately took the minds of his listeners from Guadalcanal and the lifeboats to the Baruch dinner given to Harry Hopkins and wife at a local hotel, denying that it cost $40 a plate or more than $5—which would still be considerable in a lifeboat or on Guadalcanal. Then, in signing off, it developed that he himself is at Miami Beach, the pleasure resort.

There will be enough unavoidable suffering in this war, without rubbing salt in it by injustices or foolish propaganda.

BRETHREN CHURCH
The local Brethren church is emphasizing evangelism leading up to Easter, and already a number have made application to be received into the church on Easter Sunday. Among the group are some soldiers who have written to the pastor expressing their desire to be received into the church. The pastor is encouraging personal evangelism and preaching sermons explaining the plan of salvation and extending an invitation to new members either by letter or baptism. Some have come to the altar for re-dedication and consecration seeking a closer walk with the Lord.

The Open Forum which is conducted each Sunday evening at 7 o'clock as a part of the departmental work will carry a series of discussion programs on the theme of "Steps To Becoming a Christian." This discussion will be led next Sunday night by Edward Myers. The pastor, Rev. William E. Thompson is asking all members and friends of the church to unite in this effort which will continue through Lent and with special services during Holy Week leading to a climax on Easter Sunday.

Mr. Thompson states that he is highly pleased with the splendid cooperation on the part of his members and especially with the reaction of the boys from his church that are in services which now number 38. Mr. Thompson believes that Christians on the home front should manifest as much loyalty for their church in these days of stress as do the boys in the service of their country.

Fair Enough

by WESTBROOK PEGLER

Washington.—Walking to the office today, George Spelvin, American thought as follows: Well McNuts to you McNutt because if you think you are going to snag me away from the tender embrace of my dear ones around my family hearthside so I have to go 'way off to some goffasaken hole of creation to make steamboats and with a lot of strangers, who may be some of them don't smell any sleep in some triple-deck flea-bag too fresh, and live on dogs and hamburger-rye well, brother, leave me ask you how does this affect Harry Hopkins, because from all I hear he never lived so high in his life with a nice free apartment in the White House for he and his bride at my expense and the most dough he ever got and still he has the gall to print an article that we Spelvins will have to do whatever he says and we can't eat this and we can't wear that because we are so short of man power and how about all those foreign-talking bums down in Washington what they call them economists and they come around and they tell congress how the only way to defeat the aggressors you have to quit your regular job and break up your home but what about those bums? Why don't they quit their jobs and go to work?

I mean if we have got to hire economists to tell the Spelvins what to do well why don't you get some economists that speak United States and not talk like a bunch of comedians and the regular American economist will anyway try to figure out how you can buy yourself a house and lot and an extra suit of clothes and the ever-loving war department she doesn't have to do the washing but send it to the laundry and a few bottles of drinking whisky for merry-makers on Christmas and anniversaries whereas those foreign-talking bums all they can think of everybody has got to be poor because the Americans are spoiled and you can't have a little house or a flat all to yourself but everybody chum up and papa goes to Wichita and mamma she gets sent to Bridgeport and the kids they go to some school where they all have to learn to be a grease-monkey and the first thing you know, well, the old man gets lonesome and the old lady may be too and so the lally gagging begins. If that is your idea why McNuts to you McNutt, and my regards to Harry Hopkins if you will be so kind.

And furthermore, McNutt, while we are taking our shirt down leave me ask you out and out and no beating around the bush like a willow the wisp instead of answering straight out from the shoulder supposing I say all right I am patriotic and I will do my bit but I will be damned if I will pay $150 or even $5 out of my wages to any muscle from some racketeering union or buy any life insurance from them, so the racketeer's no-account bum of a no-good loafer of a chiseling son will get forty or fifty thousand bucks a year out of the premiums and I can buy the same insurance ten times as cheap a hundred places right here in town but I have to join the union because you sap I have to go to work in the steamboat plant and before I can join I have to buy this hi-jacker's insurance or otherwise you are going to stick me in the army, because if that is the idea, well, brother you are just out of your mind, what I mean.

Personally, McNutt, I have not positively got anything against you, personally in any way shape or form and maybe you are trying to do the best you can but if you are fixing to shove the Spelvins around why I might as well tell you to get down to brass tacks and stop poisoning the issue with evasions which only strifle the sap-roots of confidence because it is either one thing or another and if we are hard up for manpower, well, Spelvin is your man but on the other hand you take where a printer, for instance, he only works five seven-hour days a week and if he works four hours over time this week he gets laid off one whole day next week to make a day's work for someone and the same way in the railroad business and what about all those slowdowns wasting time and bums getting rummed up so they lay off Mondays to cool out and guys just stalling around Army construction jobs because a carpenter gets fined, he moves a ladder so a laborer has to move it for him and you call that labor's gains so I have to bust up my love-bower and go to Seattle or Bangor and eat in the Quick-and-dirty while Harry Hopkins and his ever-loving, they get caviar and champagne wine and free rent and laundry and room service and still he has got the gall to be telling me has he McNutt?

Well, like I said in the first place, McNuts to you McNutt and two is eight.

First Treatment for Cattle Grub May Be Made Now

Illinois farmers and stock raisers can begin applying the first treatment for control of the ox warble or cattle grub now to make sure U. S. soldiers, sailors and marines get more beef, milk and leather.

B. G. Berger, assistant entomologist of the State Natural History Survey and the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, states that recent examinations made by him of cattle from Illinois farms shipped to the three principal yards of the state show feeder cattle to be heavily infested with grubs. Many were purchased from the extreme south and southwestern parts of the country. Native steers are not so heavily infested, but do contain grubs.

The most satisfactory treatment is to scrub the backs of the animals with a stiff fiber brush, using a wash composed of 1 gallon of water, 12 ounces of 5-per cent rotenone cube and 2 ounces of soap. These materials are mixed just before using and applied to the animals while they are being held tightly in a pinch gate. Dairy cows may be treated without the use of the gate if they are gentle.

Thirty days after the first and second treatments another similar application should be made with the wash over the withers, chine, loin and rump. This treatment should be repeated every 30 days while there are grubs visible on the backs of the animals. Grubs arrive at various times in the back and emerge in as short a time as 35 days. Thorough and repeated treatments insure against adult heel flies chasing the cattle next summer.

Other methods may be used to control the grub and warble. A small quantity of carbon tetrachloride may be injected into the hole made by the grub in the animal's back. Using a small oil can is satisfactory. Hand extraction may also be practiced, Berger said.

Crowded Department Store in England Is Hit by German Bomb

London, Feb. 10.—(AP)—A German air raider scored a direct bomb hit on a crowded department store in a south England town this afternoon and many bodies were feared pinned in the wreckage.

A brief air raid alert also was sounded in London at 5 p. m. today and the city's anti-aircraft guns opened fire against German raiders which tried to crash through the Capital's defenses.

It was London's first alert since Jan. 20, when German bombers blasted a school at the suburb of Lewisham and killed 42 children and 5 teachers.

The RAF, meanwhile, attacked railway yards at Caen, in northwestern France.

Donald, a nurse residing in Polo, on Nov. 27, 1934.

Surviving are his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Roy W. Merrifield of Urbana, Ill.; two brothers, Wallace B. Vaughan of Amoy, and Louie S. Vaughan of Butte, Mont.; a sister, Mrs. Lottie L. James of Amoy and four grandchildren, Jacques, Richard, Donald and Jean Merrifield.

Jacques Merrifield is a prisoner of the Japanese, taken when the Philippine islands were captured. Two sons, Glenn P. and Fred N. Jr., preceded Mr. Vaughan in death.

Mr. Vaughan, who had served several terms as mayor of Amoy and who at one time was president of the Amoy National bank and the Amoy township high school board, was engaged in the real estate and insurance business with his brother Wallace at the time of his death.

THE TERRIBLE EYE

BY EDWIN RUTT

COPYRIGHT, 1943, NEA SERVICE, INC.

Jonah Logan has invented "The Terrible Eye," a fantastic camera gadget that re-creates and tele-visions scenes of the past. He and his assistant, Mahoney, meet Hildy Channing when they crash the estate of her father, the multi-millionaire camera king. While Jonah talks to Hildy, he is startled by a strange noise. In a moment he learns that a sound was made by Bucephalus, a horse owned by Hildy's Uncle Cal.

MR. CHANNING SNORTS

CHAPTER V

"MY uncle, Calvin Meggs?"
"Oh! I thought it was Al Capone, shrunk in the wash."
"Uncle Cal," explained Hildy, "is an amiable reprobate. Father says he's a worthless character because he's such a poor business man."

"Well, I didn't notice that. I thought he made J. P. Morgan look like a panhandler."
"Father refers to his past. It seems Uncle Cal went through his own money and a lot of Aunt Mag's. Aunt Mag was father's sister."

"I see. This poor business man who makes $10 a minute lives here?"
"Oh, yes. He's one of the family."

"Forgive me if I seem inquisitive," Jonah said, "but just why did we give him $10?"
"Hush money," said Hildy.

Jonah shook his head. "I'm thick, I guess."
"Well," said Hildy, "I told you that father and I are on the outs. And father's been threatening me with dire things if I don't . . . well, behave myself. And if he heard what I've just said to you, he'd hit the roof. Well, Uncle Cal knows all about our fight. If you hadn't given him that $10 he'd have gone straight to father."
"But, gosh, that's blackmail. The guy's a menace."

"I know. But he had me that time."
"What's the horse for?" asked Jonah. "Just a playmate of mine?"
"That horse," Hildy said spitefully, "has changed Uncle Cal from a delightful elderly gentleman into a conniving little money-cadger."

"You mean the horse has a bad influence on him?"
She nodded. "The worst. There's a bit of history to this, Jonah. It seems that years ago, before Uncle Cal frittered away his money, he owned a racehorse. Well, father has always had racehorses, too, and the story goes that he and Uncle Cal got into an argument. About whether one of father's horses could beat Uncle Cal's. See?"

"Sure. And did it?"
"Yes," said Hildy. "They had a private race and father's horse won in a walk. At least, father says so. But Uncle Cal has a different version. He's hinted that father bribed his jockey to pull his horse."

Jonah whistled. "That's a grave charge."

"Isn't it? Particularly against father. Father is president of the State Turf Association."

"Of course, you say your uncle doesn't actually charge it. Just makes hints."
"That's it." Dark hints. He's been doing it for years. Well, recently he bought this horse, Bucephalus. Where he got the money we don't know. But Uncle Cal appeared with him one day and challenged father to another race. His horse against Black Moonlight, father's very best."

"H'm," said Jonah. "Your uncle must repose a lot of confidence in that fugitive from a glue factory."

"He's perfectly dotty about him. He even says that Bucephalus can run as fast as Bonaparte Brandy."

"Then he is dotty," Jonah explained. "Bonaparte Brandy won the Kentucky Derby two years ago."

"That's what I tell Uncle Cal. But he won't listen."

"BUT where does the money angle come in? The kind of drift and dreamy blackmail he goes in for?"

"Well, you see," explained Hildy patiently, "Uncle Cal is hoping to make a killing. I happen to know that when father accepted his challenge, Uncle Cal put his shirt on Bucephalus and got very good odds. And father said he'd cover anything else that Uncle Cal cared to bet. So Uncle Cal has been trying to scrape up more money. And he's resorted to the lowest possible schemes. He even borrowed a dollar from the butler the other day."

"By gosh," said Jonah, impressed, "your uncle isn't fooling."
"It seems not. I'm afraid Uncle Cal bears a grudge over that other race. Of course, I don't think that father put the jockey up to any monkey business. But father likes to win things. And when he does, he gloats."

"The gloating type, eh?"
"But, definitely. Father has been gloating over Uncle Cal for years. He's been . . . well, Uncle Cal calls it 'impugning my judgment of horseflesh!'"

Quotations for Future Delivery of Eggs Scrambled

Chicago, Feb. 10—(AP)—Egg quotations for future delivery were thoroughly scrambled today.

At the season of the year when egg production is normally on the increase and in the face of trade expectations of record breaking egg production for the coming season, prices of egg futures had advanced during the past eight successive trading sessions a total of between 80 and 100 points. A 100 point rise means an advance of a cent a dozen.

The February future closed yesterday at 35.65 cents a dozen, the highest price for the contract since 1929. Eggs for March delivery closed at 36.00, the best level since 1921.

At the same time, eggs in the spot or cash market have been declining. Receipts of cash eggs yesterday were heavy, totaling 18,581 cases of 30 dozen each. Cash eggs were put under a ceiling price of 40½ to 40 cents a dozen for extra first and 39 to 39½ for fresh graded firsts. The same grades yesterday sold at 35½ to 36 and 35¼-½, respectively.

Causes Cited

Causes of the drop in the price of actual eggs were given as heavy supplies and consumer resistance to high prices which resulted in less demand.

The rise in the price of eggs for future delivery, which is a seasonal advance, was explained in part by indications that the government would be a heavy buyer of egg powder for Army, Navy and lend-lease accounts. A week ago, the government placed an order for 5,000 pounds of powdered eggs, the heaviest order since last June.

Traders said that ordinarily the March contracts would be selling at a discount instead of at a premium as is now the case. They added that egg production was on the upturn, but that processors were moving supplies into storage rather than to market. The explanation for this contra-seasonal movement was that producers and processors expected continued heavy government purchases of powdered eggs during the coming season, and that while egg production would be one of the heaviest on record the demand for eggs also would soar to new high levels.

When you turned in scrap rubber,
you earned tires to keep you rolling

...here's your Atlas war tire!

You did a grand job last summer when you turned in 454,000 tons of rubber in the Petroleum Industry Scrap Rubber Drive. We're leum happy that you turned in more of it through Standard Oil (Indiana) Dealers and Agents than through those of any other one company, but the important part is that you turned it in.

You're going to get the rubber to keep rolling. In accordance with the latest OPA ration rules, the Government is releasing "war" tires of reclaimed rubber to civilians. It is also allowing tires to be recapped.

We're ready to supply your needs, whether for recapping or for new tires. We always make sure that Atlas Tires are the equal of any tires on the market, grade for grade. That is true of the Atlas "War" Tires. With proper care, under wartime driving they should give three years of service (if you have an "A" ration book).

The care of those tires is all-important—and that's where Atlas Tires have a big edge on all others. It's so easy to get thorough and expert service. You need go no farther than your convenient Standard Oil Dealer.

Phillies Will Be Sold to Syndicate; Members Not Named

National League Buys Stock of Club for Resale Tuesday

New York, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The question in baseball still is "Who is going to buy the Phillies?" but there is a new meaning today in the old familiar query.

Acting as a broker, the National League yesterday bought up the stock of its Philadelphia problem child for resale to a syndicate and thus ended a weary 10-year reign for Gerry Nugent as president of the club.

How soon the ownership will be passed along to a group of Philadelphia and New York men no one could say today, but there was every likelihood that the deal would be completed quickly—possibly today.

League President Ford Frick, other club owners and Nugent wrestled with the sale all day yesterday at the annual meeting of the National League. Frick and the other owners had determined on a show-down and refused to be deterred by an alternate proposal of Nugent by which he would have continued in control of the club.

They had a bonafide bid for the club, and in order to transfer clear title to the new owners, free of the many obligations that had encumbered Nugent, the magnates agreed to have the league buy all available stock, amounting to 4,685 shares of the 5,000 issued.

League Assumes Debts

Debts of the club have been estimated at $130,000 to the league treasury and $60,000 to others. The league assumed all of these and paid Nugent a specified rate per share for his 52 per cent interest. The best guess on the price was $12 a share, which would have brought Nugent $31,200 for his 2,600 shares.

National College Cage Tourney in New York in March

Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—(AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association today set March 30 for playing of its fifth annual basketball championship in Madison Square Garden, New York, and appointed committees to select teams to compete in preliminary playoffs.

The western playoffs will be held in Municipal Auditorium, Kansas City, March 26 and 27, and the eastern at the Garden March 24 and 25.

Cage Coach Harold G. Olsen of Ohio State University, tournament chairman, said eastern and western runners-up would meet at New York in the NCAA's first "consolation" final to decide the winner of third place.

Committees from eight districts, four east of the Mississippi and four west, will select the outstanding team in their area to play in the preliminaries.

Districts the states they include and committeemen include:

District 4—(Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota): Kenneth L. Wilson, Northwestern University; Ben van Alstyne, Michigan State University; George E. Keegan, University of Notre Dame.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Wonder if Ford Frick's effort to get the Phillies back on their feet will be as successful as his first big job as National League president. . . . Back in 1935, if you remember, Frick stepped into John Heydler's shoes just in time to deal with a similar situation at Boston. . . . He (or the National League) wasn't so gentle that time as yesterday's dealings with Gerry Nugent. . . . Gerry, at least, got some dough out of it but all Judge Emil Fuchs got when they took the Braves away from him was the bounce. . . . But the Braves kept solvent and even moved out of last place, which was all the league required. . . . All we can say for the Phils' buyers is that they must have as much courage as dough. . . . And our understanding is that they had to show a good bankroll for expenses besides the price of the club's stock.

TODAY'S SPORTS STAR

Bill Reddy, Syracuse (N. Y.) Post Standard: "The manpower shortage already has brought a change in plans for the three metropolitan major league clubs. They've discovered that ushers won't be available, so they're figuring on usherettes. . . . Good idea. If the usherettes are sufficiently good-looking, they may distract the fans from what's going on out on the field."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

A Kentucky high school group has put that basketball "penalty box" idea up to the rules committee and it's said to be getting serious consideration. . . . Niftiest name for a race horse reported this season is "Same in Summer" for a nag whose dam was "Helen Winter."

HOT AIR

After Tulsa's football team had completed four straight passes against Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl game, a Vol tackle paused to ask Sax Judd, Tulsa's wisecracking end, if they'd pass again on the next play. . . . "I'm too far out to tell from where I'm standing," Judd replied, squinting at the ball, "but if there's still some air in that ball, we'll probably pass."

SERVICE DEPT.

Judge Landis reports that the major leagues are working on a plan to broadcast their ball games to all American troops overseas "beginning the first day of the season." . . . Lieut. Woodie Adams, former T. C. U. football player, writes home from his South Pacific post that he's "as safe as I'd be in bed at home in Midland." . . . That Midland must be some town. . . . When Bob Sullivan, who used to be quite a boxer at Georgetown, was turned down by the Marines, he literally fought his way in. . . . He joined an ambulance unit that wound up at Tobruk and when the New Zealand detachment to which it was attached lost heavily, Bob grabbed a gun and went on front-line duty. Eventually he got home for a rest and the Marines decided anybody who could do that was okay.

Financial News

New York, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The Shell Union Oil Corp. estimates net profits for 1942 of approximately $21,200,000, of which it proposed to set aside $4,400,000 as a special reserve against general revaluation of properties, leaving an income balance of $16,800,000.

The income was estimated on a new basis, R. G. A. van der Woude said, and included dividends from wholly owned Shell Pipe Line Corp. and partly owned affiliate companies, while 1941's report included the equity in these companies' earnings.

On the 1941 basis, the past year's income would have been $18,600,000 against $17,334,000 in 1941.

Smith Barney & Co., and the First of Michigan Corp. have made a secondary distribution of 50,000 shares of Parke, Davis & Co. common stock at 28 1/2 a share with a dealers discount of 70 cents a share. The offering was over-subscribed immediately.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co. reports in an annual statement for 1942 total assets rose $38,634,854 during the year to a record of $834,552,067.

Of the total, 24.8 per cent was invested in government bonds, the company added. Other bonds aggregated $360,975,552.

During 1942, the statement said the company experienced the lowest mortality level since 1927, or a rate of 10 per cent lower than the average for the last ten years. This decline was after war claims had been taken into consideration.

WEDS IN ALGIERS

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The first American soldier to wed a French girl at allied headquarters, Air Force Sergeant Frank M. Cheney, 28, of White Plains, N. Y., returned to duty today after a brief honeymoon.

The marriage ceremony of Sergeant Cheney and Madeleine Sylvie Cavalier, 20, of Algiers, on Feb. 7 was attended by Lieut. Col. Elliott Roosevelt, who is in command of Cheney's unit.

Baldwin, Kas., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Baker University—the nation's gymless basketball camp—finds lack of practice space no handicap.

The team, whose gymnasium burned weeks ago, topped previously unbeaten Kansas Wesleyan 45 to 37 last night, to take first place in the tough, small-college Kansas conference.

Coach Emil Liston sometimes takes his Baker boys to Lawrence to use the University of Kansas gym; sometimes they manage limited workouts in makeshift quarters at home; and sometimes they just sit.

Milwaukee, Feb. 10.—(AP)—The ordering to active service of a star left guard previously unmentioned on lists of Army reserves last night darkened Coach Tom Stidham's hopes for his 1943 Marquette football team.

The guard, George Noah Groves, a junior from Rossville, Ill., has been a regular two seasons. He will report to an Army air forces pre-technical training school at Boca Raton, Fla., on Feb. 23.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 10.—(AP)—The state's known undefeated high school basketball teams were reduced by two today, following initial losses suffered by Watson and Cairo last night.

Watson's 21-game streak was snapped 36-31 by Beecher City, a team which has won only two out of 11 games in the national trail conference, where it occupies last place.

Cairo, which had won 12 in a row without a setback, was trounced at Cape Girardeau, Mo. 45-26, in its bid for No. 13.

Shannon won its 17th straight, 34-26, from Mt. Carroll.

Wm. Allen White of Kansas, Nearing 75, Still Same Old Bill

Veteran Editor Talks of Past and Future to Interviewer

By ELMONT WAITE
Emporia, Kas., Feb. 10—(AP)—Thumbing his nose at the future and throwing kisses at a glorious past, William Allen White was scuttling busily around his Emporia Gazette office today.

And all at once came face to face with his 75th birthday.

"There must be some mistake", he said, at first.

"I feel no different than at 65, or 55".

This sharp-eyed, beautifully-spoken cherub of Kansas journalism long has been the liberal prophet of his era—and his era goes on and on.

Kansas herself is the nation's tenth muse.

"Kansas is the low barometer of the country", he said 20 years ago, and two decades of close-hand observation haven't changed his opinion nor improved upon the classic way he then put it:

"When anything is going to happen in this country, it happens first in Kansas. Abolition, prohibition, populism, the Bull Moose, the exit of the roller towel... these things came popping out of Kansas like bats out of hell".

It's been a grand time to be alive, he said, and there was a genuine tremble in his voice when he added:

Picked Right Business

"I'm so glad I got into the newspaper business. I wouldn't have been any good at anything else".

White, about as senile at 75 as a fresh United States Marine shavetail, refuses to go around repeating his classic remarks of the past, but he still believes he is lucky—"that Lady Luck has been good to me".

"I fancy she is good to everyone", he once explained. "Only some people are sour and when she gives them the come hither with her eyes they look down or turn away and lift an eyebrow".

"Me, I give her the wink and away we go".

For many years the motto he has claimed for his life has been a slogan he once saw bannered in Coney Island: "Ain't It Grand to Be Bughouse!"

"There is no insanity so devastating in man's life as utter sanity. It will get him quicker than whisky. Logic is an acute melancholia that makes dumb bunnies of its devotees".

Famous at 28

Only 28 when he was boosted to national fame by his acrid editorial outburst, "What's the Matter With Kansas?", this slight, white-haired, sandy-browed native has known well ten presidents.

And characterized them sharply, too—like McKinley: "A politician chiseled out of soap to look like a statesman".

He still chuckles over the mystery message he received from Franklin D. Roosevelt. He had written the president urging the appointment of Felix Frankfurter as Supreme court justice. The president explained why he could not appoint Frankfurter.

Later, after White had forgotten the exchange, a telegram arrived from Roosevelt:

"Dear Bill: I have done it".

"Paul, what the devil does this mean?" White asked his telegraph news editor...Then a bulletin tinkled in, announcing the appointment.

And Franklin D. Roosevelt's successor?

Talks of Politics

"If the Republican convention were held today, Wendell Willkie is the only man whom the Republicans could nominate who could be elected. I say this realizing he could not be nominated if the Republican national committee set up the convention as it often has been set up in other years, notably 1912, 1920 and 1924. That crowd never will take Willkie; and anyone that crowd names will be defeated".

He foresees a strenuous future. Inflation, for instance, is a critically dangerous threat: "Congress is inclined to do what the folks at home want—and the folks at home sometimes want what isn't good for them. Cattlemen, for instance, want higher-priced steers, and if they get them the country will go to hell in inflation".

After the war, there are two dangerous alternatives for this nation: the same old isolationism, and equally dangerous imperialism—ism—the view that "American blood was spilled here; we must keep this soil they died to conquer..." The safe, middle course "will be darned difficult".

They'll Do It Every Time

And there'll be another terrible depression, he predicts, unless America makes a determined effort to avoid it.

Then he laughed:

"But you boys will have to wrestle with these things."

"I'll be a ripple under the daisies—I'll be down there chuckling at you".

Grain News

Chicago, Feb. 10—(AP)—Increased sales of government-owned feed wheat were reported to be affecting corn values adversely today. In many localities where substantial feeding operations are conducted, prices of feed wheat are well below the price of corn. Much of the corn now coming to market has a high moisture content and damaged corn is selling at wide discounts.

Broomhall, British grain authority, said the Argentine wheat exportable surplus was officially placed at 292,000,000 bushels, compared with 242,000,000 last year and 169,000,000 two years ago.

Preliminary estimates of the 1942 grain harvest in Denmark indicated the wheat crop was a virtual failure with a total of 735,000 bushels, compared to the 1934-38 average of 13,845,000 bushels and the 1941 crop of 6,981,000. Apparently the shortage will be most acute for in normal years Denmark has imported about 50 per cent of its requirement and reports indicate that reserve stocks have been depleted.

Carlot receipts of wheat in the northwest yesterday were heavier than a week ago or a year ago. At Minneapolis, the totals were 534 cars yesterday compared with 349 and 184, respectively, in Chicago they were 138, compared with 113 and 16; while the total receipts in the area were 777 yesterday, 544 a week earlier and 361 a year ago.

Red Cross Notes

Soldiers Kits—Each of the 400 soldiers kits now being prepared by the Ogle county chapter, contains articles needed by the service men, although not supplied by the Army and Navy. At an approximate cost of about $1.00 each, the kits provide soap, playing cards, cigarettes, shoe polishing cloths, pencil, envelopes, writing paper, chewing gum, shoe laces, waterproof match boxes, razor blades, pocket size novel and sewing case. The goal of the national Red Cross is a kit bag for every man over seas.

Prisoners of War—Since last spring the American Red Cross has made every effort to send aid to the Philippines where the largest number of American prisoners of war are interned but thus far the Japanese have not agreed to the appointment of a neutral delegate of the American Red Cross in the Philippines and have refused to guarantee safe passage for a relief ship.

First Aid Work—Alonzo Maginias of Rochelle, county chairman of this work reports 25 First Aid classes conducted with a total of 531 graduates. Many of these classes have been conducted by busy practicing physicians without remuneration and considering the burden of work now being carried by our local doctors, such volunteer service is particularly outstanding.

Junior Red Cross—Among the many letters received by Mrs. Gerald Hough, Production Chairman of the Junior Red Cross of Ogle county was one last week from the Veteran's Hospital at Danville of which the following is an extract. "For years past the American Red Cross has remem-

Facts and Instructions Concerning Levy Prepared by Treasury

DEDUCTIONS FOR BAD DEBTS (PART 2)

No deductions for bad debts arising out of services, including rents, is allowable unless the amounts due have been included in income, either in the year in which the deduction as a bad debt is sought to be made or for a previous year. Thus, uncollectible bills rendered by professional men, such as physicians, lawyers, dentists, etc., are not deductible as bad debts unless the amount of such bills rendered have been included in the income reported by the taxpayer. Where the taxpayer reports on the cash receipts and disbursements basis, it is obvious that the amount of the bad debt has not been returned as income, and would, therefore, not be deductible. Rule also applies to other debts arising out of services, such as commissions due to salesmen, salaries or wages due clerks, executives, and others for services, and rentals due landlords on rental property, as well as to debts arising out of sales in the case of a business conducted on the cash receipts and disbursements basis.

A deduction for bad debt may arise where the taxpayer, as indorser or guarantor on an obligation, has been obliged to pay the debt of the principal. When the indorser or guarantor pays a debt, he it subrogated to the rights of the creditor against the principal debtor, and if his claim against the debtor is worthless and uncollectible, he is entitled to a deduction, not because of the payment itself, but because the payment gives rise to a claim which becomes a bad debt. If the indorser or guarantor reports on the cash receipts and disbursements basis, and meets his obligation by giving his personal note for the worthless note of the principal debtor, he may not claim the deduction until the year in which the note is paid. However, if he reports on the accrual basis, the deduction would be allowed in the year in which he gave his note in settlement of the obligation. The provisions regarding deduction for bad debts do not apply to securities which have become worthless, as such losses are required to be treated as a loss from the sale or exchange of capital assets reportable in Schedule F and in item 8 of the return for 1940. When a debt is ascertained to be recoverable only in part, it is permissible to take a deduction for partial worthlessness not in excess of the amount which actually becomes worthless within the taxable year. In the case of taxpayers engaged in business in which credit to customers is a factor, the reserve method of deducting bad debts may be employed under the provisions of the statute.
